Honorable Wilbur D. Mills
Chairman
Committee on Ways and Means
House of Representatives
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Chairman Mills:

You will recall my letter of 8 October 1963 concerning amendment to paragraph 4 of Section 104(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to exclude from gross income amounts received as annuities by certain disabled CIA employees. The amendment was contained in H. R. 7216, but was deleted since action on the provision had not been completed by the Ways and Means Committee when H. R. 8427 was reported as a clean bill by the House Committee on Armed Services. Reference is also made to my discussion with you on 14 October 1953.

Members of my staff have kept in touch with the Committee, and it is my hope that with the passage of the Administration's Tax Bill the Committee might now schedule consideration of miscellaneous items such as this amendment.

If I may be of assistance to you or the Committee in this matter, I will be pleased to do so.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

John S. Warner
Legislative Counsel
